Tip: If you find the value in cell phone protection insurance, you may consider an alternative card to the Visa Verizon card that does not offer coverage. Alternatively, you can add cell phone protection cover to your Verizon plan and pay for its use of Verizon dollars earned on the card. Final thoughts are respectable earnings on the Visa Verizon card. With 4% gains on food and gas and 3% on dinner, premiums are sure to add quickly. Any Verizon customer with the card should be able to easily compensate a poriton of their monthly Verizon Wireless Bill with daily spending. Another advantage is that the card does not charge an annual fee. One negative side to the card is that if you turn wireless providers, the Verizon Visa card will basically be useless, as it will not earn more prizes. However, if you just signed up with Verizon and perhaps are paying your phone through a 2-year rata contract (or longer), the card could add a lot of value.
