The main characters are simple shapes LEGO, besides the gameplay is very familiar for the new series - gamers LEGO Star Wars: The Complete Saga, and moved first at diverse locations to fight through blasters or laser sword, at the same time collecting missing parts, spilling of the characters.But ordinary battles to save the galaxy does not work, because all the problems of the boundless universe can not be solved without the use of mental abilities. So get ready for further difficulties. A classic film and television works for the prototype of the building class role-playing game, the game players as if to return to the "Star Wars" in the movie world, the face of various enemies and opponents, must be brave in the hands of the lightsaber and laser gun Destroy them. This is the classic film and fun with the combination of building blocks, as a special way to show the players wonderful space war. I believe that young players or older players will have a different game experience, following Xiaobian to follow This happy world of stars The game to the full view of the 3D screen presented to the player is very science fiction space scene, in the background props and character design completely use Lego building blocks standard, a variety of familiar building blocks and scenes combined, people in the feeling of more than some novel. I believe many players are familiar with the LEGO brand, and Lego building blocks are more popular with the players, this for the whole music high building blocks show super atmosphere of the universe war, all people amazing again and again. The game uses two operating modes, namely touch sliding screen and fixed virtual button, when the player chooses the fixed button, will appear in the screen virtual rocker and four skill keys; when the player chooses to touch the sliding screen, then No buttons will appear. Virtual buttons are very convenient and clear, players can walk, attack, jump or help as needed; and touch sliding screen is more free to control the variability and complexity. Two ways have their own advantages, relative to the beginners with a fixed button to better operate, but for all kinds of God speaking veteran speaking, with a free sliding screen more flexible and handsome. The biggest feature of the game is the combination of the film and Lego, a lot of players have played a small class of Lego high class, so these blocks will have a special kind of emotion, the game will be humane and classic masterpiece together. Although the building blocks are the main body, but the transformation of various scenes and characters, expressions are done in place, and the game has more than 120 kinds of characters, so players do not have to worry about the old people to see repeated. In addition to the static scenes of the game and the wonderful characters in the fight is even more fun. Players use light sword to kill the enemy, the enemy will be broken into a variety of building blocks, which makes people feel surprised when it will take for granted. Of course, the game is also very bright picture of the fight, the characters of the martial arts movements and a variety of light effects superposition, so that players seem to be experiencing a real battle. There is no limit to the game, the player basically need to follow the movie plot to go in some rooms or channels with the enemy to fight, and also need to collect all kinds of props to open the door leading to the next room. In addition to the independent control of the situation, the game there are a lot of transitions animation, as if to re-experience a classic story of Star Wars, these animations will allow players to the story of the game more understanding of the background. In general, this is a game to do Star Wars FANS, if you do not have a cold war on the Star Wars, I am afraid that will feel less fun, after all, the game interspersed with a lot of Star Wars story, in general, This is a very worthwhile work.
