Go to the content The French Riviera has no shortage of beautiful coastal cities kissed by the sun: Villefranche-sur-Mer, Saint Jean Cap Ferrat, Antibes, Eze... But one of its most famous stops, Monte-Carlo, has a way of sparkling wanderlust even in the most jaded traveller. The district, located within the tiny village of Munich, is synonymous with a high living; the thirty percent of the residents are millionaires, hence the Porsches, Bentleys and Rotoli-Rolini parked on each block. His casino was featured in not one, but two James Bond movies (1983s never say more and 1995 Goldeneye). And if that is not fascinating enough for you: it is still governed by the same royal family that it hired in the 1297 year. Its durable charm among travelers derives from its accessibility. Nice City of Azur International Airport, the main transit hub of southern France, is a quick helicopter ride of seven minutes away (for a less dramatic entrance to the city, there is also an express bus). And if you are in the middle of a continental jaunt, there are easy trains from Paris (from 28 euro; takes about six and a half hours) and Milan (from 36 euro, five hours). Once you are in Monte-Carlo, the bus is the best way to go around... In fact, the entire French Riviera, from Cannes to Mentone, is well served by public transport. There is also a wide province network of electric bicycles, also for the beach that jumps along the scenic coastal roads of Monte-Carlo. But how else are you supposed to spend your time on a mid-winter getaway? Here, a quick primer to live easy in Monte Carlo. It rarely gets cold in Munich (Temps at the start around the'60s and'70 to January), and it is almost always sunny. Room rates are also down, making winter a more convenient time to visit. The Metropole Monte-Carlo, for example, has a current offer of 360 EUR (including breakfast and tea for two) per night, less than the same room will cost you in June. Every January, the Monte Carlo International Circus festival draws the best jugglers, jugglers, Tropes, trapeze artists and clowns from all over the world (this year marks the 40th anniversary, so expect an even bigger blow than usual). And in March, the Rose Ball, a charity event initiated by Princess Grace in the 1954, is your chance to rub your shoulders with (literally) real ones in the legendary Salle des Etoiles concert hall. Why not start by driving a convertible, a Grace Kelly and Cary Grant in To Catch a Thief, along the Grand Corniche? Platinum Rent, a luxury car rental service, boasts a fleet of 48-cars from Lamborghinis to Aston Martins26. To borrow for your day of coastal cruise. Meanwhile, at the Oceanographic Museum, built on a rocky wall and nicknamed "Temple of the Sea", there is a shark lagoon, whale skeletons, and an aquarium with four thousand species of fish. For an experience that is quintessentially Munich, go see the change of guards at the imposing Palace of the Prince, and then go inside to admire his chapels, the white stone towers and the frescoes of the fifteenth century (there is also a private collection of a hundred old cars, of course). Go shopping at the Pavilions Monte-Carlo, a row of five giant white capsules built to accommodate luxury brands, such as Alexander McQueen and Saint Laurent, until the completion of the restoration of Place du Casino. For car lovers: the world-famous Grand Prix takes place in May 26-29, and tickets (starting from 60 euro) can be purchased here. Monte-Carlo is home to several luxury hotels, but the only one you need to know is Hotel Hermitage. The bright white Belle Epoque facade sums up the essence of Monte Carlo Ritz and glitz: inside, it boasts one of the most famous lobbies in Europe, with a glass dome dome designed by Gustave Eiffel (as in that tower). The brochure continues below, at the Thermes Marins Monte-Carlo spa, where you can register for The treatment involves spending two minutes in a cold room set at -110°C, and is used to relieve stress, lag and muscle diseases. In winter, winter, private beaches are closed, although it is still possible to walk along the famous Larvotto beach. For a small trip, the people of the place affectionately refer to Cap de All La Mala as one of the most beautiful beaches of the entire Riviera. You can practically Instagram with your eyes closed in this stuffy coastal city, and every photo will come out great. But one of the most spectacular views is the one from the bridge of Villa La Vigie, a prestigious 1902 villa overlooking the bay of Roquebrune Cap Martin. Its 2550-foot terrace attracts high-end tenants, such as Karl Lagerfeld, who lived here for a decade in the 1990s. Thanks! Even non-gamblers can take advantage of the Casino of Monte-Carlo, built in the 1863, which marked the birth of the modern Monte-Carlo (Charles III, Prince of Monaco, founded it as a tourist attraction to generate additional revenue for the province). Keep in mind that it is a dress code (no shorts and flip-flops, jacket requested after the 2000s) then, for a place that counted as patrons all, from Napoleon Bonaparte to Winston Churchill, so would you expect otherwise?
