Through the Prophet Samuel, the Lord commands Saul to destroy the Amalectes and kill all their animals. Saul refuses to kill their animals, saying they will be offered as a sacrifice. Samuel tells the arrogant Saul that obedience is more important than sacrifice and says Saul that for disobeying God's command, Saul will lose his Kingdom. Samuel visits Jesse, a pastor with eight children. He tells Jesse that the Lord needs one of them. Jesse presents his children, including David, the youngest. God tells Samuel of unrent David as king of Israel. Everyone is amazed at God's choice, because Saul is still the formidable king. Neither Samuel nor anyone else knows how God will work His will. The Philistines attack Israel with a new weapon - a giant named Goliath. Jesse's sons prepare for the battle. Because he is too young for the battlefield, David is held behind to tend the flocks. The Philistines offer the Israelites a challenge: a single fight between the strongest man of every part. For 40 days Goliath taunts Saul. When David hears Goliath challenge the armies of the Living God, indeed challenging God himself, David knows that he must accept the challenge. When Saul offers his armor to David, David responds that "my faith is sufficient". With a stone from its crack, David kills the powerful Goliath. Although the Israelites beat the Philistines, Saul knows that he was also defeated. —Nest Family Entertainmentbibleindependent filmcharacter name in title You do not have recently viewed pages
