Sonic X is adding to the Netflix US library on December 1st. Netflix confirms Sonic X (Season 1 & 2) coming for next month. Sonic X already rebroadcast in Japan on Kids Station starting in January 2020. They are also the release of Sonic the Hedgehog movie the following month. According to Kids Station, they might air the complete series. This means that season 3 of Sonic X, dubbed "The Metarex Saga" may be formally introduced on Japanese television 15 years after the U.S. premiere date. In this they talk about: "It looks to be that they will start in January 2020, though Kids Station changed their layout recently, so they don't list the months ahead of air dates like they used to. So we'll need to wait a little closer to confirm this, but appears to be the case for now."
What's the synopsis of Sonic X?
Here's the official description: The Adventure Begins! Sonic blasts into Dr. Eggman's base to gain control of the Seven Chaos Emeralds and rescue his friends Cream & Cheese. In the heat of the battle, all seven Chaos Emeralds are joined together causing an overpowered Chaos Central to transport Sonic from his home planet and dropping him right in the middle of the city of Station Square. Is he alone in this human world? What happened to his friends? And why has he been sent here? All of Sonic's Videogame Friends - and Enemies - are here! Tails, Dr. Eggman's Knuckles, Amy, Shadow, Big the Cat, Rouge, and Cream & Cheese. Now we know Sonic X Season 1 and Season 2 coming to Netflix US on December 1st. Check out the trailer below.

Wikipedia article Sonic X is a anime series based on the Sonic the Hedgehog video game series. It originally ran consecutively on Sundays from April 6, 2003 to March 28, 2004 with a total of 52 episodes (collectively known as the Japanese "Series 1"). Episodes 53-78 (collectively known as "Series 2") initially after they were completed and produced, were not aired on TV until 2020 or released on DVD in Japan, but eventually became available through various streaming services years later (episodes 53-78 were first broadcast on TV in France and parts of Asia before they aired on UK/US television). However, as part of Kids Station's 2020 line-up of programming, it was announced that as part a tie in promotion for the Sonic the Hedgehog movie, the network would finally begin broadcasting the remaining episodes in 2020. This would mark the first time that the episodes would air in any format on Japanese television. For the English dub produced by 4Kids (which aired on FOX on the Saturday morning block FoxBox, later renamed 4Kids TV from August 23, 2003 to May 6, 2006), episodes 1-52 were referred to as Seasons 1-2, each 26 episodes long, and episodes 53-78 were referred to as Season 3, but the Saga Set DVD releases split the episodes into 6 Seasons, each containing 13 episodes. The airdates for TV Tokyo are listed on the left, while the airdates for the 4Kids English dub are on the right. For Season 3, air dates for the Japanese run reflect the first date of Kids Station's broadcasts.
