NHL broadcasts on ESPN and TNT will generate new hockey enthusiasts?Sport Seriously: The NHL brings a lot of momentum in the new season with new transmission partners in ESPN and Turner Sports. Charles Curtis examines whether this will lead to reinsertion of hockey in the mainstream of American sports culture. The Anaheim Ducks have put Bob Murray on administrative leave in the middle of an investigation into the conduct of the vice president executive and general manager of the squadron". Accusations of professional misconduct against Bob Murray,"the team said in a statement issued Tuesday. He asked Shephard Mullin to conduct an independent investigation. Upon recommendation of the first results, We decided to put Bob on administrative leave pending the final results."The Ducks stated that GM's assistant Jeff Solomon would take on the role of Murray temporarily. Murray is at his 12th season as GM Ducks and was appointed general manager of the year in 2013-14. He was senior vice president when the Ducks won the Stanley Cup 2007. Stan Szeto-USA OGGI SportGli Anaheim Ducks have spent the last three seasons near the bottom of the NHL classification, often becoming the subject of commercial speculation. However, their strong start of the season and the recent change in management could give rise to some speculation about the course of their reconstruction. In September, we noticed that the Ducks could be a team to keep an eye on this season's commercial market. Major veterans such as attacker Ryan Getzlaf and Rickard Rakell and defenders Hampus Lindholm and Josh Manson can become unrestricted free agents next summer. Doorman John Gibson is signed up to 2026-27, but has also become the subject of speculation of trading at the beginning of the season. The Ducks are currently flying high in the Western Conference classification despite the recent departure of longtime general manager Bob Murray. James O'Brien of NBC Sports believes they should take advantage of Murray's exit to accelerate reconstruction. It will suggest selling high on Gibson and selling Getzlaf, Rakell, Lindholm and Manson by the end of March 21st. Brien suggested the Ducks use their free space as a weapon. He suggests that they charge a premium for the draft choices or for the prospects of accepting annoying contracts from other clubs. Perhaps the Ducks will listen to the advice of O'Brien if they fall into the ranks and withdraw from the playoffs during the season. Gibson, Getzlaf, Rakell, Lindholm and Manson would attract a lot of interest from playoffs contenders as they approach their trading deadline. However, the call for post-season revenues could prove irresistible if they remain in full hunting by the expiration date. keep their UFAs hanging as'own rentals'and maybe become buyers to improve their playoffs. Getty Images The Anaheim Ducks have placed the executive vice president and Director General Bob Murray on administrative leave due to an ongoing investigation into professional conduct. "We have recently become aware of allegations of professional misconduct against Bob Murray," the Ducks said in a statement. "After the interna l review, we enlisted Shephard Mullin to conduct an independent investigation. Upon recommendation of their initial findings, we decided to put Bob on administrative leave pending final results. Meanwhile, Vice President of Operations Hockey and Assistant Director General Jeff Solomon hired will be the role of interim Director-General. We will not make any further comments until © The investigation will not be complete. "Murray has been a member of the Ducks front office since 2005. In 2008, Murray took on the role of Director General of the franchise after Brian Burke came down from the same position. The 1960s were also the general manager of the Chicago Blackhawks from 1997 to 1999. In addition, Murray also worked for the Vancouver Canucks as a professional scout. Murray was also the winner of the Jim Gregory Award in 2014, which is awarded annually to the general director of the League of the Year. From 1974 to 1990, Murray played in 1,008 NHL games while spending fifteen seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks. The Anaheim Ducks are a professional ice hockey team based in Anaheim, California, United States. They are members of the Pacific Division of the Western Conference of the National Hockey League (NHL). The team was founded as expansion franchises in the 1993's like the Anaheim Mighty Ducks. The team had six general managers.
