JOB FAMILY APPROACH – JOB ALLOCATION QUESTIONNAIRE

The purpose of this questionnaire is to record the key information and job content to help in the evaluation of the job. The information provided will be treated confidentially, and should relate to the job not the person who may be undertaking the role. This form should be completed by the manager if this is a new post, or the current job holder in conjunction with the line manager for a re-evaluation of an existing post, and should be signed by both parties (if applicable).

Once completed, this form should be forwarded to HR, along with a proposed organisational structure/chart and any current job description and person specification for the post. During the allocation process, HR will consult with the manager regarding the drafting of a new job and person specification for the post.

Refer to the Guidance Notes before and during completion to ensure you give all the appropriate information to the Allocating officers/Panel. *Is a mandatory field: the form cannot be actioned without this information. For paper based submissions, please use additional sheets clearly marking the question that is being answered where applicable. Grey sections will be completed by HR ONLY.
